Press Release

Berlin, 2nd June 2008 The British Berlin Airlift Association remembers the start of the Berlin Airlift on June 1948.

A 60th Anniversary commemoration weekend will be held at the Holiday Inn Hotel in Peterborough UK from Thursday the 25th to Sunday the 29th June 2008.

Program details will be available

Berlin Airlift "made allies and friends of former enemies" and the contribution of the United Kingdom and Commonwealth helping hands and human hearts changed the course of history for my country."

However, it was also as effective as it was generous. The Berlin Airlift was a body blow to Soviet ambitions for Western Europe, one that was accomplished without firing a shot and that point remains applicable today.

The Association invited as honored guests the representatives of the Berlin Chapter.
